TW ADVISORS RECEIVES "TOP GUN" AWARD

Centerville, Ohio - During the most challenging economic environment in two generations, a local investment firm - Tillar-Wenstrup Advisors, LLC (TW Advisors) -- has been named as the quarterly Number One Top Gun award winner in the category of "Diversified Core," which is comprised of 357 firms and 793 products.

PSN (Plan Sponsored Network), is a national organization that ranks financial products in six categories in over 50 "universes." This anticipated quarterly ranking is widely used by institutional asset manager and investors. This Number One ranking by TW Advisors, with offices at 92 East Franklin Street in Centerville, is a rarity in the Miami Valley, and is indicative of the disciplined approach that TW Advisors employs.

TW Advisors principals are Kettering resident James Tillar and Centerville resident Steve Wenstrup. Miamisburg resident Timothy Roesch is Vice President of Operations. "TW is especially pleased to have achieved this award in a difficult market period," Mr. Wenstrup said. He also elaborated that TW is pleased to have outperformed their benchmarks and their peers over the longer term periods as well. Celebrating their tenth-year anniversary this year, TW Advisors services a wide range of clients throughout Ohio. "Our clients benefit from our willingness to hold cash when risks are high and from our selected portfolio of traditional blue-chip, high quality and special situation stocks," Mr. Tillar noted. He also pointed out that their extensive experience and training has helped them successfully serve clients during this difficult recession. For further information, please call 937-428-9700, or visit www.twadvisors.com.
